It is the biggest international numismatic fair of the world of its kind and variety of offers. This fair is a great numismatic event with coins and medals from the antiquity to the modern times, banknotes, securities, accessories and specialist literature.

It is the biggest trading place of the world for the classical numismatics. Specialists, professionals, money investors and collectors visit this show. 260 exhibitors present various numismatic objects on the area of 2800 to 3800 square metres. They give advices, buy, and sell.

The Numismata with its stations in Munich, Berlin, and Frankfurt covers the whole territory of Germany. The dealers and collectors from the neighbourhood have not a long way to one of the cities.

Since May, 2009 the NUMISMATA will take place in Vienna, Austria, in the heart of the former Habsburgs' Empire. Situated at the border between the West and the former Eastern bloc Vienna will surely become an additional opportunity for two sides for a growing closer.
